I respectfully report the office of 2nd Lt Company D. 32nd Term Regt vacant and respectfully recommend, 1st Sergeant William W. Courtney Co D. 32nd Term Regt for promotion for gallantry in the Battle of Chickasawga on the 19th & 20th of September 1863 to fill said vacancy. Sert Courtney's conduct in the battle of both days was such as to strike every one as being worthy of emulation. Twice in the severest fire when his own Company incurred he moved forward in advance of his Co. calling upon them to follow him and he was not content and determined that his Co moved forward instantly under the most severe fire he was also at all times not only watchful to prevent struggling in his own Co. and in case of the least confusion to instantly rally his Co. but likewise aided in rallying and keeping to the Co. he has been a member of my Regt since its first organization and I know him to be qualified to fill the office
