Mr Rupert C Wright

Dear Sir—

Yours of 3rd inst to hand, accept my thanks for your kindness in writing me in regard to my old friend & comrade Dr Geo. Wall - there is I think, no one more familiar with the cir-cumstances of his death or dis-appearance than myself - your in-formation in the main is correct, I first met him at the organization of our Regt, the 15th Tenn. Inftry, at Union City Tenn in 1861 - he was then surgeon of the Regt, but re-signed that position, and soon after, was appointed Major, I was one of the non commissioned staff officers of the Regt, and of course this brought us in close fellowship, we were always the best of friends and shared everything in common, he was a noble, brave, high toned gentleman and a better soldier never lived - he was wounded and fell into the enemy's hands at Perryville Ky, after being exchanged returned to his command, - we attacked the enemy on July 22nd near Atlanta Ga. (in the evening) the last I saw of him was just before we reached their works, we were successful in the charge and killed, captured and drove them off, we held the field, and after the fight ceased for our wounded and buried the dead, but never did find Wall, and the few of us left, (I mean my immediate command) have always been in doubt as to what became of him, sometimes we think he might have been captured and died in prison - for these reasons I have made inquiry whenever I had an opportunity - Wall and one other we lost at Franklin Tenn. are the only two of our command we cannot account for, of one thing I am quite sure, that he was not left on the field, dead or alive, myself

✓ and others made diligent search, and I know we would have found him - this fight was not before Atlanta as your informant states, we always called it the Battle in the rear of Atlanta, we had passed through the city going South, then went a few miles East - I had hoped for a long time, that he might have been captured, and would finally reach home, but this cannot be - unless he died in prison - I hope he has gone to a better world, and that at some time we shall ~~re-visit~~ ^{re-visit} again - with thanks for your kind invitation to visit you, and extending the same to you - should you ever be in this vicinity -

I remain very truly
A. Weber
